CORAM: D.K.DESHMUKH, J.

DATED: 22nd March, 2006

P.C.:

This is an appeal challenging the order passed by the Joint District Judge declining to grant temporary injunction in favour of the Appellant. The Appellant sought a temporary injunction under Section 9 of the Arbitration & Conciliation Act restraining the Respondent from taking any action on the tender called on 18-8-2005 and opened on 29-8-2005, at the risk and costs of the Appellant. If the contract of the Appellant is wrongfully terminated, then the Appellant can be compensated by awarding damages in terms of money. There is no possibility of the Appellant suffering any irreparable loss or injury. Therefore, I do not see any reason to interefere with the order impugned in the appeal. Appeal is disposed of.
